

UPDATES + DID ELECTION RESULTS

DOWNTOWN INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATS

TONIGHT - TUESDAY APRIL 12, 2011

Dynamic DID members Leah Kozak and Jeffrey Kurzon are hosts of a panel on social media and the influence on social change in communities and politics. Open to everyone.

TIME 7-9 pm

PLACE Mary O's, 32 Avenue A, NYC

SATURDAY - APRIL 30, 2011

RALLY TO DEMAND A FULL SERVICE HOSPITAL

TIME 2 pm

PLACE 7th Ave. & 12th St. , NYC

DID supports a full service hospital downtown NYC. This is crucial given the 91% increase in residents reported by the Census in just 10 years.

SUNDAY - MAY 1, 2011

ANNUAL DID FUNDRAISER

You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Fundraiser for the DOWNTOWN INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATS

TIME 3 to 6 PM

PLACE At the loft of Sean Sweeney, 125 Greene Street, NYC

Join DID District Leaders Paul Newell & Jean Grillo and DID President Jeanne Wilcke on this festive occasion.

Reserve Tickets: <http://did2011.eventbrite.com/>

Contact treasurer@didnyc.org for member discount.

HYDROFRACKING

You can submit comments until Friday April 15, 2011.

The Delaware River Basin Commission is developing new regulations for development in the river basin, which spreads across Delaware, NJ, NY & Pennsylvania.

Tell the commission how you feel about allowing hydrofracking near drinking water supplies at:

<http://parkplanning.nps.gov/commentForm.cfm?documentID=37829>

Drilling groups have upped their lobbying money in Albany and are pushing to allow hydrofracking to begin in NY State.
